

TRANSIENT STUDENT PERMISSION REQUEST FORM (Admissions)

Transient students who wish to attend Columbus State University from another institution must complete this form. Students must be eligible and given permission from their home institution to be considered for transient admission. Students may only request to enroll as a transient for one semester each academic year. Students must apply for admission to CSU for subsequent enrollment after your transient term has ended. Admissions requirements vary by institution and admission acceptance does not guarantee course availability.
